

1987 Recipients

Tony Gray: Tony was a founding member, and later President of Kappa Rho Tau, Canada's first and only fully co-ed fraternity. He was also a member of the McGill Cross-Country Running track & field team.

Robert Baxter: Rob was a founding member and later President of the McGill University Rowing Club; He went on to establish the Friends of McGill Rowing and served on staff of the McGill Development Office 1982-96.

Claire Thompson: a former President of the Religious Studies Association, Claire was also heavily involved with the Newman Centre, acting as their Social Outreach Coordinator, and later as their General Coordinator.

(List incomplete)